1. INTRODUCTION

The Latin American Space Challenge (LASC) is a three-day series of events which will set the background and provide structure for the Latin America's largest experimental rocket engineering competition.

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the 2020 LASC Online will be a virtual event. Teams will be challenged to develop, simulate and present their rocket projects submitting progress reports, simulation results, project technical reports and videos describing their project. Also, the 2020 LASC Online will host a sprint-like event for online challenges for the registered teams.

For the safety of all rocketeers, satelliteers, general public and LASC Organization, the 2020 Latin American Space Challenge will not host a scored launch window.

2. BACKGROUND

The noise, fire, high speeds, and the adrenaline of launching a rocket encourage people to pursue science, technology, and mathematics based careers and for the progress of the science and technology of their countries. A space competition motivates them to extend themselves beyond the classroom to design and build the rockets themselves. Students enrolled in this challenge also could learn to work as a team, solving real world problems under the same pressures they'll experience in their future careers.

The Latin American Space Challenge (LASC) has a mission to motivate people from all latin american countries to develop and launch a rocket with a smallsat as a payload. The vision of the LASC is to provide motivation for latin american students and enthusiasts to pursue their dreams

3. PURPOSE AND SCOPE

This document primarily defines the schedule on which participants in the Latin American Space Challenge must submit required deliverables to the event organizers in order to be considered "timely" in scoring.

The impact of timeliness on scoring is described for each respective deliverable in Section 6 of the LASC Rules & Requirements Document, maintained on the LASC website.

Furthermore, this document, integrates other information useful to participants, such as the deadlines for early, on-time, or late-payment of fees, due dates for required waivers/forms, and the detailed event schedule of the Latin American Space Challenge itself.

Additional documents and complementary guidance for the 2020 LASC Online will be published on the LASC website.

4. REVISION

It is expected the LASC Master Schedule Document may require revision in the months leading up to a competition. Also, major revisions will be accomplished by complete document reissue. Such revisions will be reflected in updates to the document's effective date.

The LASC Integrated Master Schedule Document is a living document and will be updated as needed throughout the period leading up to the Latin American Space Challenge - at the event itself if necessary - in response to real-world events. The most up to date version will always be maintained on the LASC website.

Participants should always verify they are working to the correct version by checking the Effective Date recorded on the header of their copy matches the version currently stored on the LASC website.

Updates to the LASC Integrated Master Schedule Document will always be announced via website and other means. The event organizers will never revise this document to make the due dates of upcoming deliverables sooner than originally scheduled.
